

Marine Arts Gallery

Presents

Frank Vining Smith (1879-1967)

Herald of the Morning

Oil, 31x47, framed 38x54

Frank Vining Smith was born on 25 August 1879 in South Abington (now Whitman), Massachusetts, where he was educated. Smith was a pupil at Boston Museum of Fine Arts under Frank Benson, Philip L. Hale, and Edmund C. Tarbell. He attended the Central Ontario School of Design in Toronto, Canada. In New York, Smith became a newspaper artist and cartoonist and attended the Art Students' League. During World War I he became a camouflage artist on vessels in Philadelphia and New York. He retired to Hingham, Massachusetts and died there on 30 July 1967.

---

26 Atlantic Avenue, Marblehead, MA 01945

781-631-0100