

Marine Arts Gallery

Presents

MARK DALY

Acorn Street Beacon Hill, Boston

Oil 18x24, with frame 27x33

Mark was taught to draw at an early age by his mother and Woodhull Young, a marine painter and curator of the Vanderbilt Museum. Today, C.W. Mundy, a master artist, has been mentoring Mark. Daly's work has been featured in solo and group show and is in many private and corporate collections. He has received prominent awards in national juried art exhibitions. and is a member of the Impressionists Society, Oil Painters of America, Cincinnati Art Club and Green Acres Artist Guild.

26 Atlantic Avenue, Marblehead, MA 01945

781-631-0100